Accessibility

APH designed The Dot Experience with accessibility integrated throughout the visitor experience, beginning with the Orientation Station — a place where visitors can learn about the variety of ways to navigate and experience the museum.

Features include:

- Tactile exhibits throughout the museum
- Braille companions for exhibit text
- APH Morrison, an APH-developed font designed to make reading easier and more comfortable for people with low vision
- Braille signage
- Audio descriptions
- ASL interpretation
- QR codes providing access to multimedia content, synchronized audio guides and localized exhibit translations
- Accessible restrooms
- Sensory Reset Room
- Independent navigation tools
